Chirolgy (Palm-Reading)

Palm-reading is the truest, most profound means of seeing other people as they really are. It dates back to the time of the Phoenicians, some 4000 years ago & is an astonishing and beautiful esoteric divining art. Science is at last prepared to re-examine the evidence and over two thousand research papers have been published on aspects of palm diagnosis, particularly in the areas of health and genetically inherited disorders, sexual trends and sporting performance.

Receiving a reading can give you an incredibly accurate insight into who you are as an individual and your deeper psychological needs, motivations and potential.

“A man’s character is his fate”, said Heraclitus (in 500 BC) and indeed, the person we are creates the future we make for ourselves. It is not, however, the shackler of destiny that we palmists seek to bind folk with but the freedom to create a new future through positive change that we offer through the light of our guidance.

About Sarah Homes

Sarah Homes trained with Johnny Fincham, international chirolgist and teacher of chirolgy. She gained a diploma in Chirolgy in July 2007.

Since then, Sarah has given readings at numerous holistic fairs in the East of England.

She continues to participate in various workshops run by Johnny Fincham, to enable her to gain more insight into chirolgy and how it can bring about people’s full potential. Sarah is dedicated to seeing people live a life full of possibilities based on their individual abilities and desires.
